

Oasis Screenings of New Cinema
Programs for July

July 10th

"Eye Music" -- Films by New Generation San Francisco filmmakers.

- David Gerstein: As the Sun Goes Down, A Hole Appears in the Sky.
- Joel Singer: Glyphs II.
- Joe Singer and James Broughton: Windmobile.
- Caroline Savage-Lee: Voyeur.
- Mark McGowan: Scratch Off/In.
- Jen's Crystal Lipzin: Periodic Vibrations in an Elastic Medium.
- Henry Hills: Porter Springs II.

July 24th

Jean-Marie Straub: Introduction to Arnold Schoenberg's
"Accompaniment to a Cinematographic Scene."
Thom Andersen: Eadweard Muybridge, Zoopraxographer, cited in a recent Sight and Sound survey as one of the 10 best films of all times.

All screenings at Founders' Hall, U.S.C.
Free parking in Lot 4, off Jefferson Blvd.
Sundays at 8 p.m. Admission $2

EM25 - need original / Pr. 106